Health Care Services Disclaimer

We are NOT a medical or health care services provider and do not provide medical/health care services or advice. MedFiller does not employ licensed medical professionals and does not interfere with the practice of medicine or any other licensed profession by health care professionals, each of whom is responsible for his or her services and compliance with the requirements applicable to his or her profession and license. MedFiller is not a training or educational tool and does not offer training nor certifications to complete paperwork that may only be completed by certified medical practitioners. Use of MedFiller as a form filling tool does not preclude errors due to lack of proper training and knowledge regarding procedures associated with specific forms.

Furthermore, MedFiller is intended to be only used as a document creation/management tool. Use of MedFiller as an electronics medical/health record system (EMR/EHR), or long-term health record archival system is strictly prohibited, as MedFiller is not intended to be used in the delivery of healthcare. Consequently, using MedFiller as an EMR or a medical decision-making tool is strictly prohibited.

MedFiller publishes very short and strict records retention schedules after which all user created forms may be permanently and irrecoverably removed. It is always the responsibility of the users to maintain appropriate copies and backups as users are best able to determine the records retention requirements for their individual pieces of paperwork. MedFiller makes no guarantees on the availability of paperwork generated.

Absolutely no warranties are made on the correctness, accuracy, reliability, and availability of the MedFiller system and generated documents. The use of MedFiller in no way reduces or diminishes responsibility on the part of the users to ensure that the paperwork being completed is accurate and correct. We or any third parties who promote the service shall NOT be liable for any advice, service, information you obtain (or do not obtain) from our system and are not responsible for any reliance or non-reliance on any information received from your medical services or health care services provider through our service. We require that all organizations and individual users of MedFiller be licensed and appropriately insured in their respective states of operation. Any lapse of this requirement will imply noncompliance with these terms of service. In addition, our terms of require that medical providers and their organizations to indemnify, hold harmless and defend MedFiller from all claims relating to the use of MedFiller

Organizations may choose to associate with MedFiller as a “business associate” under HIPAA rules and we have created a standardized business associate agreement (BAA). If it is ever determined that the relationship between a MedFiller Client and a MedFiller constitutes a relationship between a covered entity and a business associate then the MedFiller BAA will be deemed to be in effect. A copy of this agreement is always available on our website and can be physically signed (executed) on request and mailed to you. Please note that this business agreement is not modifiable or negotiable. We provide our services to many different organizations in a consistent, secure and privacy aware manner. Individual modifications and adjustments are not feasible for us to accommodate.
